Dear OLOL Family:

We continue to closely monitor updates on the Coronavirus. In the event that OLOL needs to close for an extended period of time, detailed information for distance learning will be provided to students and parents.

This afternoon the students will be taking home books and school supplies, should a shutdown decision be made before Monday.

We will follow the guidance of the Archdiocese of Miami and health officials to determine whether or not we move to a distance learning model.

We are in this together. This too shall pass.

God is good...
